“THE MOON IS BLUE”

A three act comedy written by Hugh Herbert, “The Moon is Blue” was presented by Central’s dramatists in McConnell Auditorium on October 24, 25, 26 and November 1 and 2.

The play was directed by Milo Smith, assistant professor in the speech and drama department, and the stars included Mike Nevilles, Lavinia Whitworth, Scott Parter, and Earl Detorrey.

As the 1968 Homecoming festivities commence, Jeanette Graham, 1967 Homecoming Queen, congratulates the new title-holder.

IN SUPPORT OF THE WILDCATS . . .

"Once Upon a Time" the students of C.W.S.C. decided to show their school spirit. To this end they put all their creativity, energy, and a little carpentry to build signs in support of the 1968 Homecoming. For their efforts Sue Lombard residents became the winners in the women's division, Barto and Elwood Manor tied for first in the men's division.

A "Groovy" Group Sergio Mendes' "Brasil '66"

A homecoming evening with the sound of Sergio Mendes' "Brasil '66," and the "Vaso Rio." Included in the performance were such songs as "With a Little Help From My Friends," "Goin' Outa My Head," and "The Look of Love."

The Grueling Experience

Old and new seekers converge on CWSC's campus. Registration brings its never-ending frustration with words of, "But I need this class to graduate"; "I've got to find another three hour class"; or "Sorry, this class is closed." Catalogs, class schedule books and students leave Nicholson Pavilion a little more tattered than when they went in.

New seekers are initiated to CWSC's campus in grand style—ala Tug-O-War. With yells, shrieks, and laughter, Freshmen take the job of pulling their end of the rope, earnestly. Firehoses and the cheers of upperclassmen lend a helping hand to both winners and losers.

"Wet and Wild"

Frosh Talent

The traditional Frosh Talent Show brought out the best in our new fellow-seekers. This show, held the first week of school, proved the Freshmen of '68 have a great deal of spunk and a lot of ability.

Winners of the talent show were Larry Vote, Tom Kell, and Mark Johnson (not pictured).

"Rotations"

The Second Annual Public Orgy, featuring the "Rotations," introduced the first in a long series of weekend dances on campus.

Fun and "Harper's Bazaar"

The word was to grab a pillow to sit on and your best girl to sit by. It was a pillow concert for listening to "Harper's Bazaar." The four member group from California performed many popular favorites such as the "59th Street Bridge Song," "Come to the Sunshine," "Anything Goes," "I Love You, Alice B. Toklas," and "Chattanooga Choo Choo."

Adam Clayton Powell, controversial Congressman, Abyssinian minister, and author, spoke to Central students on Tuesday, October 1, in Nicholson Pavilion.

Powell was the first keynote speaker to appear on campus in the fall of 1968. In the spring of 1967, he was censured by his fellow legislators and not allowed to occupy his seat in the Congressional House.

Following his talk on "Black America," Powell participated in a question and answer period in which points on the presidential campaign and the draft were brought out.

Dr. Max Savelle, a noted historian and Central's distinguished visiting professor for fall quarter, gave a three part speech which dealt with colonial America. His speech, "Three Philosophies and America," included such notable historical names as Voltaire of France, Hume of England, and Franklin of America.

Dr. Lawrence Meredith, University of Pacific, and Anson Mount of Playboy Enterprises.

Dr. Tom Grief, Gonzaga University.

"Sexuality and the Human Relationship" was the topic of the symposium held on campus, November 11-22. Sponsored by the Resident Hall Senate, the S.G.A., and the Ecumenical Campus Ministry, the symposium included Curbstones, movies, a retreat for married students, and speakers from all over the country.

The keynote speaker was Dr. Lester Kirkendall, a professor of family life at Oregon State University. Others were Dr. Lawrence Meredith, dean of the chapel at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, California; Anson Mount, public affairs manager for "Playboy" enterprises; Dr. William Hulme, professor of pastoral counseling at Lutheran Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota; Father Tom Grief, dean of students at Gonzaga; and Dr. Ron Pion.

Typical student...

Betty Evans, author, actress and director.

The plot of this play was one of the husband and wife changing roles—she to the office, he at home. Most of the action was presented through the medium of dialogue and the fantastic ability of the actors and actresses. There was no help from props and settings, only the imagination of the audience was required to provide the home atmosphere, and the business world of the office.

Dr. George Forrell, professor and director of the school of religion from the University of Iowa, discussed "Student Unrest - Values in Conflict" at Curbstone.

GUEST TELL IT SEE

Below, a Biafran student, Kamalu Ukwijl, traveling through the United States, spoke about the civil war in his homeland...

SPEAKERS AS THEY IT

... as a sympathetic audience listened at Curbstone.

Dr. Stanley A. Cain, noted ecologist from the University of Michigan, delivered a speech on "Rich Lands and Poor Lands" in Hertz Recital Hall.

Class change day at Central is always well-remembered. Frenzied students stand in line to get their desperately needed class cards or try hopefully to discard a few.

WHO'S WHO

The names of these students will be published in the annual directory of "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." They were chosen by a campus nominating committee and the editors of the directory on the basis of their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in the extra-curricular activities, and future potential.

The "Who's Who" directory has been honoring such students as these since 1934. Today the directory selects from more than 1,000 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the nations of North and South America.

Coach-of-the-Half-Year honors are bestowed upon Head Football Coach Tom Parry, right, at the midway point of the Evergreen Conference campaign. Ellensburg Mayor Sperm Bailey presents the award for Parry's 3-0 conference mark. Parry's Wildcats went on to win the EVCO crown with a perfect 6-0 record. Before Mayor Bailey could issue a proclamation and present the other half of the award, Coach Parry's fellow coaches named him NAIA District 1 Coach-of-the-Year. When not on the gridiron, Coach Parry is Assistant Professor Parry and teaches in the physical education department. His degrees are from Washington State University.

Academics

Inspiring facilities, such as Bouillon Library,
are a vital ingredient in the CWSC educational process.

The Serious Student Grows at Central

CWSC's total academic emphasis is a many-faceted system of educational tools and programs. A wide-ranging undergraduate program, coupled with a distinguished faculty and up-to-date academic resources, brings unique educational opportunities to Central students. Graduate programs leading to masters degrees are available in many areas and pre-professional work is made available to those pursuing such specialized fields as medicine and law. Central's programs and requirements are tailored to all serious students and provide special curricula for superior students. Faculty members also take part in research and work closely with students by serving as advisers and by maintaining personal attention to the academic needs of individual students.

CAMPUS COPS DO MORE THAN ISSUE TICKETS

A former member of the New York Police Department is one of Central's Safety Security Officers. Adolf John Brickley left New York to visit Japan. He stopped in Seattle, liked it, and returned there to live. He's been working on campus for a year and a half.

Besides the most well-known duty—issuing parking tickets, the Security Officers handle a myriad of other duties. They check safes in Barge Hall, make sure fire extinguishers are in proper working order, transport cashiers to and from their destinations, and open buildings and rooms for faculty members who have lost their keys.

The Security Officers work closely with the Ellensburg Police Department and the Kittitas County Sheriff's Office.

One of the most important duties of the Security Officers is transporting emergency cases from the school infirmary to the hospital. L-R: Chet Jacobs, Mrs. Winterer, R.N.; Officer Brickley.

Many Central students take advantage of an academic program which permits them to receive credit from CWSC while studying at the University of the Americas near Mexico City. Summer quarter of this year students will receive credit in a program that will take them to Tokyo and other Far East cities. In Mexico, trips to archeological sites and special lectures on the culture of Mexico are highlights of the educational adventure. The Mexico tour is arranged each year by Prof. Reino Randall, of the art department, who accompanies the students. The tour is not limited to art and language majors and all courses are taught in English. The students live with Mexican families while in Mexico.

There's More Than Textbooks For Music Students

Music majors and other student and faculty musicians annually submit to the rigorous practice sessions under the direction of Dr. Wayne Hertz, chairman of the department of music. Here members of the Central Singers join the Central Orchestra in preparing a Christmas season program.

Guest Lecturers Add Dimension

Central students often receive the benefit of guest lecturers who are specialists in a certain field of study. Sometimes these are teachers from sister institutions, but often they are professional persons not directly engaged in the education process. Among these are Hu Blonk, managing editor of the Wenatchee World, shown here visiting with two journalism students following a lecture for a class in Press and Society. Mr. Blonk is chairman of the Associated Press's right-to-know committee and an ardent fighter for freedom of the press. Other guest lecturers included scientists, politicians, businessmen, public officials and educators.

Student Village Offers Unique Educational Experience

The Student Village opened in time for fall quarter. Students living in the co-op portion of the Village take many of their classes right in their own residence hall with classes being conducted in the lounge areas. Much of their class time is spent in small discussion groups. Students in the co-op halls are responsible for much of the daily cleaning of their rooms. Meals are served by fellow students while others are responsible for additional chores around the halls. Freshmen students are selected for this Student Village experience. As sophomores, they will move out and let a new class of freshmen move in.

"Smile, Frosh" seemed to be the never-ending theme of Anderson Hall's new student week. Mock registration with Whitney helped the frosh face the perils of the Pavilion, while motion pictures revealed the antics of a new experience. Raggedy Ann and Andy were brought to life during homecoming, when Anderson presented the theme "Andy Land."

Under the leadership of president Janet Larson, the quarterly dorm breakfasts were held along with the traditional summer birthday party and the spring quarter square dance private.

When the "Cats" and "Loggers" tangled at Homecoming, Barto Hall built a winning homecoming sign complete with log, mill, and saw to develop their theme of "The Cats Cut the Loggers Down to Size."

BARTO HALL

Barto Hall enjoyed its second year as a co-ed dormitory by obtaining new intra room visiting hours.

Mike Johnson, president of Barto, led the dorm in achieving civic responsibility. The dorm initiated a program of inviting underprivileged children into the dorm for visits and parties.

Dorm parties included a pre-holiday New Years Eve party which was held in November and a dorm private winter quarter at Conifer Lodge.

BECK HALL

The objective at Beck Hall is to successfully combine both social events and academics. Academics are emphasized by the presence of a dorm library, a dorm honor roll, and awards for the highest GPA's. Socially, Beck sponsors numerous inter-dorm exchanges, a dorm-dance winter quarter, and a dorm private. Beck also sponsored a teeter-totter marathon with Hitchcock Hall fall quarter. Beck has one of the few regularly published dorm newspapers on campus, and is prominent in many campus functions.

BUTTONS

Celebrating its fifth year as a women's residency, Buttons Apartments offers the advantages of on-campus living with the privacy of off-campus. President Sue Hopkins helped the women organize an off-campus Christmas party. Buttons also took an active part in the Resident Hall Senate.

The women of Buttons enjoy the conveniences of on-campus living with the privacy of off-campus.

CARMODY HALL

A campus first was established in Carmody Hall this year when they had a sociology class taught in the dorm for dorm members. This proved to be a rewarding experience for those who participated. Academics were further emphasized by having a series of ten faculty speakers, sensitivity training sessions, and a series of sex-education discussions.

President Gary Beck saw to it that fun was not slighted in Carmody as the dorm held a winter retreat at Conifer Lodge, a dance held at the Armory and a Yakima River raft race.

Stretching up, up and away is Courson Hall, one of the two high-rise dormitories.

COURSON HALL

Courson Hall undertook a special project this year of adopting a mentally retarded boy from Yakima valley school. The women took turns sending him money and toys, while several women visited him spring quarter.

Christmas provided an opportunity to honor dorm officers, head residents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Courson, and dorm maintenance personnel at the annual Christmas party.

Spring quarter, with the help of president Peggy Watson, a backyard barbecue and dance was held.

Academics were encouraged by a presentation of a trophy to the floor with the highest GPA and floor sponsored speakers.

DAVIES HALL

Becoming aware of civic responsibility, Davies Hall, under the leadership of president Steffany Raynes, began many programs this year. Beginning in Ellensburg, Davies collected food goods for a Thanksgiving basket which they gave to a needy family. The men in Viet Nam were remembered next on Valentines Day with "cupids" and "Be Mines." A hungry overseas orphan was adopted by the women of Davies who sent money for his basic needs and who were concerned for his happiness.

Other dorm activities included a successful rock and roll dance early fall quarter; the proceeds bought a new dorm sewing machine.

"Home, home on the range"... that's Elwood!

ELWOOD MANOR

The legend of "The Old Lady in the Shoe" was transformed into "Old Tom Cat Parry" when the men of Elwood took first place in the Homecoming sign contest. This was their ninth win in ten years.

Fall quarter President and Mrs. Brooks were honored at the annual President's Ball, sponsored by Elwood.

Joyous music was brought to many girls as the men of Elwood went Christmas caroling.

Spring quarter brought the ice cream social as the Elwood men churned and struggled with their homemade ice cream and cookies. This was hungrily devoured by favorite professors.

Double-H, Double-H... Hitchcock Hall.

HITCHCOCK HALL

"Are you open minded?" was the question which was investigated by Hitchcock Hall's freshmen during orientation week, and was a continuing premise on which Hitchcock dwelled throughout the year. Other academic programs initiated under the leadership of the president, Char Sampson, included a variety of speakers, a post-symposium discussion, and enlarging the dorm library.

"Hansel and Gretel" complete with candy canes, lolly-pops, and the witch's cage won second place in the Homecoming sign competition.

Social events included a Halloween party, hootenannies, a dorm dance, a Christmas party and the Beck-Hitchcock teeter-toter marathon in which the old record of 126 hours was broken by going up and down on the board for a 150 hours.

JENNIE MOORE

"Frantic Fall Made Fun" proved to be an appropriate theme for New Student Week and fall quarter as a whole for the ladies of Jennie Moore. Included in this frantic quarter was the Frosh Tug-of-War, a Halloween party, Pace Week, Choral Competition, and WAA intramural sports.

Winter quarter did not see a slack in the year's activities with many dorm meetings, guest speakers and highlighted by a winter quarter private and after-game rock and roll dance.

On into spring, preparations were made for Parents' Weekend and a continuation of WAA participation.

KAMOLA

Dunking for onions and pushing peanuts with noses were two of the liveliest events of Kamola Hall's Halloween party. At the end of fall quarter the melodious voices of the Kamola women combined to win a first place trophy during the Christmas coral competition. Other social events included sponsoring a dance whose proceeds bought a color television set and a stereo, and a winter quarter private.

Feeling a need for a dorm tutor, Kamola Hall began a program of paying two of their residents to tutor underclassmen in Spanish, English and grammar.

President Laura Parker saw to it that civic responsibilities were not slighted by Kamola as they invited girls from the Job Corp to stay with them and collected a $113.00 for the Jerry Savage memorial fund.

Oh Christmas tree, oh Christmas tree, we in Kamola love you!

KENNEDY HALL

Kennedy Hall, under the leadership of president Bill Guerther, had a very active social calendar. The dorm had a fall quarter picnic in the rain, a keg party, and dances. Winter quarter brought ski parties and a formal banquet. Raft races down the Yakima River, a dorm campout in the Menastash and the annual spring quarter salmon barbecue completed the year.

Academios were emphasized when the Kennedy men combined with the Meisner women in hosting a Courtship and Marriage class in Meisner Hall. Discussion groups and speakers throughout the year added to a well-rounded program.

The day after the night before.

Kennedy Hall offers a conducive atmosphere for its men to study, learn, and play.

Pull, pull, pull and pull they did, all the way to win for the second year in a row the Frosh tug-of-war. And so Meisner Hall began another active and successful year. Participation in choral competition won the women a second place trophy. Everyone had fun building a homecoming sign and participation in WAA.

Nelle Field, president, presided over several dorm parties including a Halloween and Christmas party.

Academically the women maintained a high G.P.A. and worked toward building a dorm library.

MIDDLETON MANOR

The men of Middleton, believing in fun and frolic centered their lives around social activities. A dishpan and pot party and a search for reality day began the year. A "Pig Stomp Dance" was held fall quarter so Central's men could bring their "pigs" and stomp.

The house's Beach Boy's fan club was enthusiastically supported as were intramural sports and a raft float down the Yakima River.

President Joe Shawcroft organized a successful college bowl team during winter and spring quarters.

A day of silence was kept by the men of Middleton in observation of Elwood Manor's freezing fate.

The women of Munson presented the third annual Mouse's Wiggle as one of the highlights of Sweezy Weekend.

President, Vicki Clausen, accelerated the learning process of the dorm by inviting a variety of speakers and resource people to speak throughout the year on subjects of interest to the women.

Munson participated in campus social events such as Homecoming and Choral Competition. They also sponsored one of the best attended annual dances of the year, the gri-ask-boy, dress-up-shabby, Sadie Hawkins dance.

Freshman orientation was the beginning of Muzzall Hall's attempt to establish an atmosphere which would make students feel at home. Participation in orientation was made, for the first time, optional to Muzzall freshmen to best prepare them for campus, academic and social life.

Although the men grumbled about the abundance of snow in Ellensburg, they enjoyed a snow party private at Hyak. The men and their dates enjoyed skiing, tubing, and snow ball fights before an evening dinner and fireside dance.

Believing in the freedom of expression, Muzzall published a weekly newspaper in which men were encouraged to express their opinions and ideas, under the leadership of president Ken Eddy.

NORTH HALL

Returning buddies found a pleasant surprise when they returned to North Hall. Expecting to see old buddies, they found instead a dorm full of women. The new inhabitants of an old dorm soon polished the atmosphere to accommodate their feminine desires. Rooms were papered, halls were painted orange, and red carpets were installed.

Bonnie Zwicker, president, ran into many problems in organizing dorm activities. The majority of the sixty women were new to Central as well as to North, but they still succeeded in sponsoring a dorm Christmas party.

The gals of North enjoy their R & R time.

To foster dorm spirit, Quigley Hall initiated innovations to identify the men with the dorm. A Quigley Hall T-shirt and pin were designed and made available for the first time. The men also elected a Miss Quigley Hall.

Activities initiated by president Pat Rogge included a pizza party after the Sergio Mendez concert and two retreats, one at the Posse House and the other at Vantage.

Winning the much coveted frosh tug-of-war trophy set the pace for the men of Sparks' year to come.

New student week was centered around the idea of the freshman becoming aware of what the college community could offer him and how he could best achieve his objectives through it.

Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's Day gave the men of Sparks a natural excuse for fun in the form of privates. House meetings were offset by social hours at which banana splits were the specialties of the day.

Under the leadership of Terry Marooni the men of Sparks upheld their tradition of high academic standings and obtained honors benefiting the men and their home.

Stephens Hall combined new activities with the traditional to make the year a fun and rewarding one. The traditional winter quarter pajama dance was enjoyed by the men and dates.

Under president Ron Wertz many new social events were held such as a spring quarter field-house carnival complete with darts and ring tossing.

In conjunction with Sue Lombard, Stephens again sponsored the ever popular Las Vegas night and what will hopefully be a traditional event of a Riverboat raft race down the Yakima River during Sweeney Weekend.

Dorm profits were spent adding to the dorm library and purchasing a pool table and ping pong table.

STUDENT VILLAGE

The massive construction complex on upper campus was inhabited this year and became known as the Student Village. The complex consists of three parts, the freshmen co-op, the men's and women's co-op and apartments. Each division involves a new aspect of campus living.

A living and learning program for future teachers was initiated in the co-op complex. The learning concept involved a new approach to teacher education stressing early teaching experiences. Students had classes in the dormitories and learned by living and working together as they did a majority of their own janitorial work and had their own food facilities. The co-op's were under the leadership of presidents John McCollum and Sandy Neely.

A unit for men and a unit for women combined to enjoy the environment of co-ed living. These units were reserved for upperclassmen and participated in campus activities under the leadership of president Jim Bifferberger.

Looking to the future, the apartments were incorporated into the Student Village. Here the men and women had all the facilities offered in off-campus apartments and yet enjoyed the conveniences of being on-campus.

Sue Lombard welcomed the new students with an active orientation program which was climaxed by a formal initiation. Fall quarter was highlighted by industrious work on the homecoming sign. Halloween was celebrated with Stephens Hall while Christmas brought Choral Competition and Pixie Week.

Las Vegas Night, featuring "The Green Garter Gas" was sponsored winter quarter by Stephens, Whitney, and the Ladies of Sue, and proved to be the yearly money making event.

Two inspirational awards are presented by Sue each year to the two women who have contributed the most to the dorm.

The women of Sue, under the leadership of President Sue Philips began a speaker program and a permanent library.

Study time, huh?

Whitney Hall

Whitney "Lovers", under President Stan Sells, put together one tremendous year. It all started with "Frosh" and new student orientation. The climax of which ended with a mock registration with IBM cards, twenty different stops, and general confusion.

Christmas was the next big event. Whitney's Christmas private came off with success, as thirty couples danced to the music of the Trio and Me.

Then came the big money-maker, hampered by the construction of the SUB. Whitney, Sue Lombard, and Stephens combined to put on Las Vegas Night in Sue dining hall. The gambling evening included strippers, floor shows, and Ad-hoc weddings.

Towards the end of winter quarter the annual snow function and pajama dance were held. Spring quarter the men of Whitney enjoyed balcony views of Jennie-Moore and Anderson, wet rooms from water fights, and full stomachs from the Steak Feed.

Whitney "Lovers" showed in the years 68-69 that they, like the astronauts, had one high time after another.

"Good Lordy, not more snow!"

Wilson Hall

Working closely with the committee for educational opportunities, Wilson Hall devoted time and energy into making college a reality for a job corp woman. They sponsored her stay at Central spring quarter.

The women of Wilson, under president Sandy Runyan opened their dorm for a weekend for job corp visitors. They also sponsored a speakers' program which was very successful.

Wilson sponsored two money-making dances, a spring quarter private and an installation banquet as part of their social activities.

EVERGREEN CHAMPS

Alone at the top of the heap with a 6-0 conference mark, Head Coach Tom Parry and his forces compiled a 6-3 record overall. . . Team defense was number one in the league, with the 'Cats giving up a scant 226 yards per game . . . Parry, in his third season since succeeding Mel Thompson, guided the Wildcats to their best season since 1963. Central beat each of their conference opponents twice, enroute to their first place conference berth. . . Howard Hosley was the top 'Cat pass catcher with 34 grabs for 596 yards. . . Ron Hoiness, Longview senior halfback, was voted inspirational award winner.

Tom Parry lead Central to its first football championship in five years.

Tom Parry, in his third season as mentor of the Wildcat forces, this year made a definite improvement on his 4-6-0 season record of last year. Two seasons ago Parry was named District 1 NAIA Coach-of-the-Year—his first at Central. Parry received the same 'coach-of-the-year' honor again this season. He came to the Wildcats from Wenatchee Valley College, where his teams compiled a 30-22-3 overall mark.

Coach Parry is a graduate of Washington State University, where he was not only an outstanding lineman, but during his senior year, was picked to play for the west in the annual East-West Shrine All-Star game. He is a native of Seattle, having attended Queen Anne High school.

Other coaching experience includes two seasons as an assistant football coach at the University of Montana, and also his alma mater Washington State.

Head Coach Parry received ample help from his talented coaching assistants during the season, which was certainly a factor in bringing the Evergreen Conference Championship back to Central.

Coach Gary Frederick, a CWSC alumnus, covered the line assignments and with good results. When spring rolls around, Coach Frederick heads the Wildcat baseball squad.

Coach Spike Arit, a graduate of Washington State University, did an outstanding job with the linebackers and ends. Arit's ability showed itself in the final statistics, where Central managed a commanding lead in Passing Defense statistics.

Coach Phil Fitterer, a graduate assistant and ex-quarterback proved himself an asset in many areas.

A GREAT COACH . . .

Central halfback Steve Hertling drags Eastern tacklers for another gain.

. . . SUPPORTED BY AN

The offense that scores touchdowns when it must, is the offense that wins ballgames. This philosophy was applied by Central's Wildcats, with evidence that it worked in their 6-0 conference record. As a team, Central scored 78 points in conference play, for exactly a 13 point average. Only one team, Eastern, scored more, but they still managed only a 3-3 conference mark.

Steve Hertling and Mike Reynolds tied for scoring honors for the 'Cats, each with 24 total points. Hertling was the top Wildcat rusher, picking up 402 net yards for a 3.24 yards-per-carry average.

Howard Hosley carries to score.

Quarterback Harvey Kochel was third in the league in total offense, running and passing for 867 yards. Most of his aeri- als went to all-league end Howard Hosley, who managed 34 receptions for 596 yards and a 17.52 yards-per-catch average.

Team leader and quarterback Kochel was the second best passer in the league, tossing for 942 yards, including three touchdowns and a .422 percentage. The ability of this year's Wildcat team was definitely there, and their perfect conference record showed they knew when to use it. Effective passing and running combined with a rugged line proved the Cats to be tops.

. . . . A LEADING DEFENSE

Every fan loves the long pass from quarterback to end, or the sprinting halfback who runs 90 yards for the score, but every coach appreciates a good defensive unit. Coach Parry had just that this year as his Wildcat unit lead the conference in both passing and total defense statistics.

All league safety Howard Hosley led the charge which included standouts Barry Rowe, Al McKnight, Bruce Kirry, and Mike Wisbey. The 'Cats held their opponents to but 226 average yards total offense, and a minimal 89 yards passing.

As a team, the Wildcats allowed a scant 24 points to be scored upon them during their six game conference season. This is an average of four points, or less than a touchdown per game. The caper to the continued Wildcat defensive efforts came in Central's second game against conference favorite Eastern. The Wildcats held them scoreless, while piling 10 big points on the board themselves.

Victorious Cats head to the showers.

A WINNING SPIRIT!

Central's new stadium facilities include more seats, bigger press box and refreshments.

CROSS COUNTRY

Jogging personified could be a way of expressing part of the task the Central Cross Country team experiences. Usually stretched around a rolling golf course, the four to five mile course is no picnic if you come to win. The Central team did just that this year, with three firsts and four seconds accredited to their dual meet competition. Home meets were held at the Ellensburg Golf Course, where, among others, Central Washington held their Second Annual Cross Country Invitational meet.

Pictured at left and above is Central's Sam Ring, a junior from Mt. Tahoma High School in Tacoma. Ring lettered as a sophomore last year, when he went to the National Championships and placed a very respectable 72nd. This year he returned to the National Meet and ended in 32nd position. A tireless worker, Ring trains twelve months of the year for his cross country event and also for the distance races for the CWSC track team in the spring. Among his three firsts and four seconds in the 1968 season, Ring took first place honors in both the Seattle Pacific Invitational and the West Vancouver Five-Mile Events. His efforts also produced a first place in the Central — University of Washington — Idaho triangular meet held this fall.

KEEP THE PACE

Competing in the Evergreen Conference Championship meet, Central harriers were edged by a strong team from Whitworth College. The same was the case in the N. A. I. A. District Meet, where the Wildcats again placed a strong second. This was a reversal over last year's results, when the Wildcat team won the EvCo crown and Whitworth took second.

Besides junior Sam Ring, the main line of the Cross Country team is this year made up of Dale Shea (So.), Mark Henry (Jr.) and Terry Kelly (Jr.)

Included in this year's successful season were two first places in both the Seattle Pacific Invitational and the West Vancouver Five-Mile Invitational. Central also took a second place behind Whitworth in their own CWSC Invitational in which over 20 teams participated, and a third place in the Eastern Washington Invitational held in Cheney.

Head Man

Head Coach Art Hutton completes his second season as mentor of the Varsity Cross Country Team, which is only two years old. In the spring, Hutton doubles as head of the champion track team which has won Evergreen track championships for as long as most people can remember. In his sixth year at CWSC, Hutton has in the past also been an assistant coach to the football team. Since establishing Cross Country as a varsity sport two years ago, Hutton has led his teams to one EvCo championship and one second place slot.

WOMEN'S FIELD HOCKEY

High spirited, exciting, and maybe a little bruising are some adjectives that could be used to exemplify the Women's Field Hockey team here at Central. Coached by Dr. Betty Putnam of the Physical Education Department, the team offers Central girls a chance to vent their emotions and maybe pick up an award-winning bruise or two. Divided into two teams, the girls fared not so well in over-all team standings, but confessed the game is fun and the competition is exciting.

Winter 1969

No sooner had the sound of crushing football pads died away than dribbling basketballs filled the void in Nicholson Pavilion. A host of painful blisters, sore muscles and heaving lungs told the story of a restful off season.

Head Coach Dean Nicholson and his forces began workouts in early November in preparation for the 1968-69 season. A host of promising transfers along with a fine nucleus from last year's winning team brought encouraging glances from early season spectators. Newcomers Paul and Mitch Adams, Ed James, Phil Neill, Bruce Sanderson, Jim Freer, and freshman Eric Schooler brought Coach Nicholson added rebounding power and increased shooting effectiveness.

Veterans back from the squad of last year earn praise-worthy comment. Achievements of note include first place in both the Evergreen Conference and the NAIA District I Playoff, and a quarterfinals finish in the national tournament. The lettermen include Theartis Wallace, Glenn Smick, Dave Allen, Ed Rogel, Ray Jones, and Wayne Schomber . . .

. . . With such a terrific gorge of talent, the head coach's job becomes critical: find the combination that clicks. As in past years, fans could count on some variation of the 'Nicholson Shuffle,' where seven or eight players saw nearly equal action throughout the game. The front line of Sanderson, Mitch Adams, and Paul Adams provided a towering defense and necessary rebounding power. Guards Dave Allen, Theartis Wallace, Ed Rogel and Ray Jones were capable of providing quick hands that incited opponent turnovers.

On the offense, Mitch Adams and brother Paul, both courtesy of Skagit Valley Junior College, were capable of scoring from all angles. Bruce Sanderson, George Bender, and Glenn Smick pounded away at the defense from inside, while guards Wallace, Allen, Rogel, Freer, and Jones lofted arching set shots from outside that brought Central rooters to their feet.

And so, with talent nearly a forgone conclusion, with a coach who, in the past four years had proven himself capable with as many trips to the national tournament, and a student body solidly behind them, the 1968-69 basketball season awaited.

Coach Dean Nicholson

Head Coach Dean Nicholson begins his fifth year as Wildcat mentor with the start of the 1968-69 season. Relieving his father, the late Leo Nicholson for the start of the 1964-65 season, 'Nic' has since compiled an impressive 90-26 win-loss record. His winning ways include an Evergreen Conference Championship in each of those seasons, except 1966; first place in the NAIA District Championships four years running, and a duplicate number of appearances in the national tournament in Kansas City, Missouri, where Central Washington has nearly become a household word.

Coach Nicholson comes to Central from Puyallup High School in Western Washington where he spent 14 years, compiling a record of 188-101, including five Puget Sound league championships. He was also head baseball coach for ten years.

A graduate of Central, Nicholson played on his father's championship teams in 1947 and 1949. He was also selected to the all-conference first team as a guard three consecutive years.

Pictured below is Wildcat forward Paul Adams on a typical drive through defensive forces. Working through the maze of sweaty bodies, flailing arms and mindful of the ever-present referee, Adams is capable of both a twisting shot that somehow finds its way to the serenity of the waiting basket, or a surprising behind-the-back-between-the-legs pass to a waiting teammate.

Below the photographer's eye caught center Bruce Sanderson alone at the top preparing to cash in on yet another two points. An all-around performer, Sanderson possesses an abundance of both offensive and defensive ability.

HOOPSTERS WIN CONFERENCE, TAKE THIRD AT KANSAS CITY

Third place in the NAIA National Tournament coupled with first place wins in the NAIA District One and the Evergreen Conference topped off the basketball season for Coach Dean Nicholson and his crew. The Wildcats compiled a 24-9 season record that included two wins in the District One play-offs and three wins at the Nationals.

Theartis Wallace, Paul Adams, Bruce Sanderson, Dave Allen and Mitch Adams finished the season with double-figure scoring averages ranging from 12.4 to 10.1.

Final statistics show that the Wildcats scored an average of 75.2 points per game as compared with 66.8 for their opponents.

In the District One playoffs, Central beat Simon Fraser 68-53 and 62-55. At the Nationals, the Wildcats downed New Haven 92-82; Howard Payne 96-74; and Henderson State 68-64, before losing to Maryland State 87-93 in the semi-finals. The Central team bounced back to defeat Elizabeth City 96-82 in the consolation finals.

A REAL GRIND

At right, varsity letterman Ron Seibel, an Evergreen Conference champion in his 160 pound weight division last year, puts the proverbial arm on his struggling opponent. Seemingly complacent, Seibel appears to be wondering just which of the protruding legs belongs to him.

YOUNG BUT TOUGH

The prospect of the 1969 season posed two problems for head wrestling coach Eric Beardsley. First, as in years past, the Central Wrestling team faced a grueling schedule, with many of their matches outside of the Evergreen Conference against nationally ranked opponents. Secondly, this year's squad suffered from 'freshmanitis', as a result of several top performers from last year's team who graduated.

In the photos above, Coach Beardsley congratulates Dennis Dahl after his winning match in the 160 pound weight division, and then retires to his place on the bench where he lapses into concentration on the next match.

At right, Central wrestler Jon Lane brings his opponent into pinning position with a crushing cross-face hold. Lane wrestles in the 152 pound weight division.

WRESTLERS WIN CONFERENCE, SEND SEVEN TO NATIONALS

This year was definitely a building year for Wrestling Coach Eric Beardsley. Nevertheless, after an undistinguished season, his squad placed first in the Evergreen Conference. Wayne Schutte, Bob Brown, Dennis Dexter, Craig Skeesick, Jon Lane and Ron Seibol earned first places at the conference tournament.

Schutte, Brown, Dexter, Skeesick, Lane, Seibol, and Thurman Landers represented Central at the NAIA National Tournament in Omaha, Nebraska.

Central Washington swimmers continued their domination of Evergreen Conference Swimming as they captured the 1969 edition of the EvCo Championships. During a season dripping with Central victories, the Wildcats accumulated but one loss to a powerful University of Puget Sound team, but not before 37 consecutive victories had been achieved. The string included 16 straight for the 1969 season.

Star performances for the CWSC team during the season came from a number of fine athletes. Blessed with the youth that tender underclassmen control, the swimmers accounted for a number of school, pool, and conference records.

Leading the team was sophomore Steve Kramer, who set school records in the 100 meter and 200 meter backstroke events. Mark Shepherd, a sophomore, and Tom Denman, a freshmen, set records in the longer freestyle events.

In diving, freshman Loren Fassett broke the one-meter and three-meter diving records set by recent All-American Mark Morrill.

Head Coach Bob Gregson completed another successful season by leading a handful of his forces to the NAIA National competition in Chicago.

Central swimmers, as in other sports, have become a household word at the national events.

SPRINGING . . . TURNING, TWISTING . . . GYMNASTS

Head gymnastics coach Curt Hahn, completing his second season as mentor of the Central Washington Gymnastics team, led his gymnasts to a six win-seven loss record. This amounts to a massive improvement over last year's effort, which consisted of but a single win in seven starts.

Sprinkled among the team's six wins were two major upsets, as Central defeated powerful Washington State University and dumped the University of Alberta.

Following the regular season play, Central sent eight of their best to the NAIA National Gymnastics Meet held in Chicago during March. The CWSC entries included Dick Foxal, Steve Justiss, Roger Smith, Fred Trousdale, Jim Brown, Ken Platt, Ken Krebs and Butch Swensen.

This was Coach Hahn's last year with the Central squad, as he accepted a job with the Montana Department of Public Instruction as a Traffic Education Consultant.

ALL BUT THREE OF 1968 NAIA THIRD PLACE TEAM RETURNS

Umpire shows 3-2 call on batter.

All but three members of last year's team plus a crop of junior college transfers and a group of outstanding freshmen made Gary Frederick's baseball coaching tasks a little easier. Frederick, beginning his second year here, made a noteworthy debut last year as his team placed third in the NAIA National Tournament.

Leading players this year were Ron Dillon and Chuck Bastoyas, catchers; Harvey Kochel, Rob Hippi, Ed Aylward and Jerry Johnson, pitchers; Bill Walker, first base; Bill Fugate, second base; Lee Day, third base; Kim Hammons, shortstop; Ron Hopkins and John Craig, left field; Bill North, center field; and Marshall Virgil and Larry Cup, right field.

THIN CLADS FACE TOUGH SEASON

John McKibbin leaps over a hurdle with John Kirry following closely behind.

Loss of thirteen members of last year's Wildcat Track Team posed on of Coach Art Hutton's biggest problems in preparing for the 1969 season. Nevertheless, twenty returning lettermen plus a talented group of new Wildcats filled in the gaps, as Central's thin clads upheld their reputation as a powerhouse in the Evergreen Conference.

Hutton, beginning his sixth year as head track mentor, has compiled an excellent record. In the last five years, Central has lost no meets to a conference school in either dual or conference competition. Nationally, the Wildcats have placed 5th, 7th and 9th in the past three seasons.

The 1969 season proved to be one of the toughest ever, as Central added Montana, Humboldt State and Southern Oregon to their list of opponents.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Government Association, Central's student body organization, speaks and acts for the entire student body to the rest of the college and the community. Through the functions, structure, funds, and power of the SGA: (1) the student body is represented on the boards, groups, and committees that govern the college; (2) individuals gain experience and ability in democratic self-government; and (3) social, recreational, and educational activities are provided for the student body.

Significant accomplishments by the SGA during 1968-69 included gaining full voting membership on President's Council, Curriculum Committees dealing with Arts & Sciences, Teacher Education, Graduate Study, and General Education and the Academic Standing Committee.

The SGA Faculty Evaluation Carried out in the Spring of 1968 was compiled, published, and released Fall Quarter of 1968. Many changes in the structure of SGA were made to make it more functional and representative of a student body of 6,500 students.

In the more traditional functions of the SGA, such activities as MIA, Big-name Entertainment and Speakers, Co-Recreation, Homecoming, Sports, Symposium, and others were enlarged and expanded to fit the interests and needs of the student body.

While its orientation and attention seems to be changing from that of the past, the SGA is more active and vital on CWSC's campus than ever before.
